National Immigration Services is a law firm specializing in corporate immigration. Headed by attorney Theodore Huang, NIS has successfully obtained work visas for such well-known companies as 7-Up Bottling Company and Emachines. National Immigration Services has consistently provided practical and free advice for visitors via its Internet site at www.myvisa.com Foreign nationals, Human Resources professionals, and other Internet visitors have come to rely on the site for easy-to-understand information that cuts through the legalese and gets to the bottom line. Attorney Huang has written numerous articles for the Internet and has been quoted in a number of articles and websites like techrepublic.com. He is an active member of American Immigration Lawyers Association and a member of the Maryland State Bar Association in excellent standing.

NIS law firm is committed to providing expeditious service to its clients in a cost-effective manner. The entire law firm is highly automated and streamlined utilizing current technology that enables the firm to prepare H-1B petitions quickly and efficiently. Clients are impressed with the speed with which petitions are prepared. Our accessibility to our clients is widely appreciated, and clients are pleasantly surprised with the responsiveness we have shown to their questions and inquiries. Typically, our clients' emails are answered within a few hours of receipt. Many foreign nationals have actually switched over to our firm after working with other immigration attorneys who never returned phone calls.

"Thank you for providing such great service. I was surprised at how quickly you prepared my H-1B application. I really didn't expect it to make it under the cap, but you got it in in time and my employer and I are very pleased with your service." –A. Mohamed, India

"Thanks for keeping me updated on the status of my case. I never felt like you guys forgot about my case." –N. Cooke, England
